"Mezcla" – The Opening Reception

"Mezcla", the current exhibit at the Dye & Bleach House Community Gallery enjoyed a well attended Opening Reception on February 23rd! The exhibit features the paintings of local artist, Jack Broderick on display Saturdays, 10:00am – 12:00pm through April 13, 2024.

"Mezcla is the Spanish word for mix. This show, if anything, is a mixture of my work over the years. Each painting is a new beginning. Each painting is a question and a wonder." – Jack Broderick

Opening Reception Friday, February 23, 2024, 6:30pm – 8:30pm.

JACK BRODERICK paints every day in his studio at The Mill Works in Willington, CT.

He uses both image and feeling in developing his paintings. To him, painting is a conversation between artist and subject whether the subject is a model, a landscape or a still life. He has traveled and painted extensively in Ireland, Argentina, Spain, Cuba and Italy. He has exhibited internationally in Paris, Tokyo, Buenos Aires, Palermo and Tilcara.

In 2003 and 2004, Jack participated in several international gallery shows in Buenos Aires, Paris and Palermo. In October 2003, he had a one man show in the Galeria EdeA, in Buenos Aires, Argentina. In January 2004, he was in a diverse show of 5 artists from Japan, Argentina and the United States in Paris, France. The following month he was in an invitational show in La Galeria Civica di Enna in Palermo, Italy. In April 2004, Jack was awarded a residency at the Fundacion Valparaiso in Mojacar, Spain. In April 2006, he exhibited in the Niche-Gallery in Tokyo, Japan. He taught a plein air workshop in Vagliagli, Italy in 2006 and 2007 and has taught painting in Buenos Aires. He is an Elected Member of the Lyme Art Association and the Connecticut Plein Air Painters Society.
